

Dr. Luciano Santini – Leadership and Management:

Luciano Santini holds a PH.D in Leadership and Organizational Psychology. He is a Human Resource and Management Specialist assisting businesses and organizations in all aspects of Operations and Organizational Management.

Bringing, satisfaction and a broad amount of experience to organizations that are in need of Organizational Leadership, Safety, Quality or Management.

Luciano Santini is also a top Motivational Speaker, personal coach, Author, Poet and loving father.

Testimonials:

*Voviette Morgan, Supervisory Special agent
Federal Bureau of Investigation*

“Luciano brings his all to his work and I highly recommend him and all of his excellent customer service skills”

Eric Bates, Deputy Attorney General

“I am of the belief that he has some of the best-rounded knowledge about business and operations available in our area and his ability to convey that knowledge is a knack few people possess.”

*Robert Bautista, Loan Manager
Citi Corp*

“Luciano brings a wealth of experience and insight into Organizational Behavior that has been highly valuable to the organization and has improved our member’s performance across the board.”

In the Leadership and Management session participants will learn to: Be inspirational,

Be empathetic, Control one’s emotions, and Be a great leader -

In Cooperation and Collaboration session participants will learn the difference:

Cooperating means working with someone in the sense of enabling: making them more able to do something vs. Collaborating meaning actually working alongside someone to achieve something.

Understand the difference to make change happen!